

Bruxafol – Product information

Bruxafol's comprehensive and diverse portfolio of materials includes a range of premium cast films, an assortment of calendered products, protective functional films and polyurethane films. This extensive choice includes products that provide the ideal solution for signage, vehicle wrapping and livery, graphics, digital printing, automotive and functional applications.

With access to the latest in technical and laboratory facilities Bruxafol is able to draw on its extensive experience and expertise to create products that meet specific customer requirements as well as innovative and unique products to enhance Bruxafol's portfolio.

Please send us your requirements and we will propose the best possible colour and film. jjonsson@papilio-media.de